President's Message to the Class of 2024

Commencement is a time of great excitement, reflection, and anticipation for what lies ahead. You have all worked hard and overcome many obstacles to get to this milestone, and we celebrate all your hard work and accomplishments as you prepare for your next chapter beyond Saint Michael's. With a Saint Michael's education in hand, you are ready to take your next steps out into the world and make your mark.

Many of you arrived at Saint Michael's at the height of the global COVID-19 pandemic – unprecedented circumstances, to say the least. Despite the immense uncertainty in the world, you chose to take a leap of faith and come to Vermont to continue your educational journey. Your experience on campus as first-year students certainly looks a lot different than it does now, but what remains constant is your courage, resilience, curiosity and love of learning.

Even under normal conditions, completing a college degree is a remarkable accomplishment. Despite the incredible challenges you faced, you persevered and excelled both inside and outside the classroom. You learned to adapt to changing circumstances, take advantage of new opportunities, and overcome adversity on personal, campus-wide, and global levels. You have become deep thinkers, creative problem solvers, and change-makers during your time at Saint Michael's, and those skills will continue to serve you well beyond our campus.

The challenges that lie ahead may be daunting, but I know you all will make the world a better place – just like the Saint Michael's graduates who have come before you and those who will come after.

I hope you reflect often on all you've learned and encountered at Saint Michael's, from the people who inspired you and impacted your journey – professors, the Edmundites, friends, family, and mentors – to the unexpected experiences that turned out to be the most rewarding – studying abroad, saving lives as a first-responder, ice climbing, planting and harvesting on our farm, or exploring other academic disciplines. No matter where you go or what you do next, you will always be welcome back home at Saint Michael's College.

Dr. Ansel Augustine
Commencement Speaker

Dr. Ansel Augustine is an award-winning author and speaker, and he serves the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as the Assistant Director of African American Affairs of the Secretariat of Cultural Diversity in the Church. He is also a member of the Saint Michael's College Board of Trustees, and he serves on the faculty of two higher education institutions: Xavier University of Louisiana's Institute for Black Catholic Studies and Loyola University New Orleans' Institute for Ministry.

Dr. Augustine began his career in ministry more than 20 years ago when he became the youth minister at his home parish of St. Peter Claver in the Treme area of New Orleans, which he later helped rebuild after Hurricane Katrina. St. Peter Claver Catholic Church was run by the Society of St. Edmund for 30 years.

Throughout his career, Dr. Augustine has focused his ministry on youth, young adults, and multicultural groups, with social justice advocacy at the core of his work. Dr. Augustine has also worked to shed light on the Black Catholic experience through workshops and presentations throughout the country, through his writing, and as the film producer of "Black Faith Matters," for which he was nominated for an Emmy Award. He is the author of several books, including "The African American Catholic Youth Bible" and "Leveling the Playing Field: Can the Church We Love, Love Us Back?"

Most recently, Dr. Augustine served as the Director of the Office of Black Catholic Ministries for the Archdiocese of New Orleans. He also formerly worked as New Orleans Area Director for Vagabond Missions, the Executive Director of Cultural Diversity and Outreach for the Archdiocese of Washington, and the Associate Director/Coordinator of Black Youth and Young Adult Ministry for the CYO Youth and Young Adult Ministry Office. He has served on the Board of Directors for the National Catholic Young Adult Ministry Association (NCYAMA) and the National Federation of Catholic Youth Ministry (NFCYM). He also previously served as Campus Minister at Xavier University of Louisiana, Loyola University New Orleans, and St. John's University in Queens, New York.

Additionally, Dr. Augustine has worked in prison ministry for more than 25 years in various capacities. He volunteers with the Mardi Gras Indian Council and at the Backstreet Cultural Museum. He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.; the Knights of Columbus; the Knights of Peter Claver; and the Wild Tchoupitoulas (Black Masking) Mardi Gras Indians. He is also an Associate Member of the Sisters of the Holy Family in New Orleans.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF SAINT MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Saint Michael's Institute was founded in 1904 at Winooski Park, Vermont, by members of the Society of Saint Edmund. These priests and brothers, known as Edmundites, took Saint Edmund of Canterbury, the 13th century Archbishop of Canterbury, as their patron saint. Saint Edmund led a rich and varied life, teaching at universities in Oxford and Paris and playing an instrumental role in the construction of Salisbury Cathedral. His final resting place in Pontigny, France, is where the Society of Saint Edmund first began its ministry in 1843. The Edmundites came to Vermont via Canada in the late 19th century, after French social and political developments dispossessed many Catholic institutions. They bought the land where today's College stands from a local farmer, Michael Kelly, turning the original farmhouse into what became Founders Hall.

As the school developed into an American-style college, the farmland became a campus. Founders Hall (1904), the only building in the early years, was later supplemented by Jeanmarie Hall (1921). Saint Michael's grew gradually in its first forty years, reaching an enrollment of about 250 students by the end of World War II. After the war, with the return of military veterans, the College's enrollment expanded dramatically to some 1,145 students. Barracks acquired from nearby Fort Ethan Allen served as classroom buildings, the library, and student residences.

The College first followed a curriculum deeply rooted in the classical European liberal arts tradition, including mandatory Greek and Latin. In 1951, the dean and future president, Reverend Gerald E. Dupont, SSE, initiated the Saint Michael's Plan, which focused on the intellectual growth of students through studies informed by Catholicism while meaningfully engaged in the secular world.

Saint Michael's became fully co-educational in 1971 and today attracts students from around the country and around the world. In 2003, Saint Michael's was invited to join the elite group of colleges and universities that shelter chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious academic honor society. Graduates have been named Rhodes Scholars, Pickering Undergraduate Fellows, Fulbright Scholars, and in recent years, a student was a prestigious Goldwater Scholar, the most competitive recognition for an undergraduate science student in the United States. Saint Michael's is regularly among the top producers of Fulbright scholars and continues to be an official Peace Corps Prep Site for undergraduates.

In 1969, Saint Michael's Fire & Rescue was created under the leadership of Don "Pappy" Sutton. Today, student volunteers run Fire & Rescue to serve the campus and surrounding communities, responding to over 3,000 calls a year. The Saint Michael's Playhouse, started in 1947, brings professional summer theater to the community and has offered a range of educational opportunities and internships for Saint Michael's undergraduate students.

Over the last few decades, the Edmundite community has transferred major responsibilities for the operation of Saint Michael's College to lay leadership. However, their presence on campus remains an inspiration and guiding spirit for the institution's Catholic character. In its second century, Saint Michael's has continued to educate students and serve our community with the faith, promise, and purpose that is our legacy.

THE SAINT MICHAEL'S COLLEGE MACE AND PRESIDENTIAL INSIGNIA

The College mace is carried by the grand marshal in each academic procession. The mace was designed and crafted by the late Roy A. Kennedy, professor of fine arts. The head of the mace is crowned by a figure of Saint Michael the Archangel seated on the Earth, and the base of the staff features the cross of the Society of Saint Edmund.

The College's presidential insignia is worn by the president at formal academic events. It is a necklace bearing a large medallion depicting the official seal of the College. Along the chain upon which the medallion is suspended are smaller discs bearing the names and terms of office of all of the College's presidents.

The color of the Saint Michael's College presidential robe is purple with black chevrons edged in gold.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The cap, gown, and hood are prominent symbols in academic ceremonies such as a Presidential Inauguration or Commencement and date back to European and British universities of the Middle Ages. The cap and gown indicate that the wearer has graduated from a university or college. The hood shows the degree the wearer holds.

The Intercollegiate Commission has established a code that regulates the academic costume. Bachelors' gowns have pointed sleeves and are generally worn closed. Masters' gowns have long, oblong sleeves and may be worn open or closed. Doctors' gowns have bell-shaped sleeves, each bearing three horizontal velvet bars. Down the front, doctors' gowns have velvet facing. The velvet facing and sleeve bars may be either black or the color distinctive of the wearer's department of learning. Those holding the doctoral degree may also choose a doctoral gown in the colors of the university from which the degree is granted rather than the more common black gown, hence some of the more colorful examples in today's academic procession. The brilliant crimson of Harvard University, orange from Syracuse, brown from Brown University, and green from Michigan State and Dartmouth are worn by some members of the Saint Michael's faculty and staff.

Caps worn with the bachelors' and masters' gowns generally have a black tassel; the doctor may wear a gold tassel. Gold tassels are also worn by bachelor's degree recipients who have achieved Latin honors in their overall programs of study.

Hoods are normally black, with a colorful lining indicating the color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. Purple and gold are the colors of Saint Michael's College. The hood is bordered with velvet; the color of the velvet represents the department of learning. The colors associated with academic subjects appear below.
